

Minutes of the WNJYO Committee Meeting
14 October 2015 at Springwood High School

Present

Hilary Clark, Pam Singh, Nina Trigg-Oglesby, Keith Rowland, Biddy Vogel.

- 1. General situation: according to Rob the new recruits are making a big difference but he is still struggling to find trumpets. Michael Hankinson has invited WNJYO to provide music before King's Lynn Sinfonia's next concert. Paul Richards has asked if we could provide music, or possibly a full concert, as part of True's Yard 25th birthday celebrations next year. Music for Youth will be on 20 March 2016. Hilary will suggest wk/e 12/13 March to St Edmund's Hunstanton. Rob has written letters to music teachers at schools and to instrument teachers, inviting them to concerts.
- 2. Website : there are a few updates that need doing (fees; take concert band reference off the registration form; on the page "About WNJYO" add after The Committee – WNJYO is a registered charity and is run by an elected committee consisting mainly of parents of players. If you would like to be part of the committee, please contact our Chairperson.)
- 3. Instrument hire – it was agreed that we need to discuss this more fully at the next committee meeting with regard to actual fees to be charged.
- 4. Forthcoming concerts – arrangements were discussed for the 3 December concerts and actions agreed (see separate table). Those involved will keep in contact and other parents will be asked for donations of cakes or other help nearer the time.
- 5. Next meeting – Wednesday 7 January 2016 at 7pm in the library at Springwood, full rehearsals start the following week.
